Anne Donovan
US People Experience Leader

Anne Donovan is the U.S. People Experience Leader for Human Capital at PricewaterhouseCoopers. In her role, Anne is the steward for PwC's culture, responsible for shaping the change management approach for numerous people initiatives at the firm. Anne also co-leads Innovation for PwC's global network of firms, sharing best practices and driving greater consistency and efficiency to support the firm's global human capital strategy.

Since joining PwC's Assurance practice in 1983, she has held numerous client service and national Human Capital leadership positions, including the Assurance strategy leader for Diversity & Inclusion.

A 1983 graduate of California State University, Northridge with a BS in Accountancy, Anne resides in San Francisco and sometimes gets graced with visits from her twins in college, Isaac and Kathryn.
