

Suzanne Davies
Vice President, Legal & Corporate Secretary
Ensign Energy Services, Inc.

Suzanne Davies is the Vice President Legal & Corporate Secretary for Ensign Energy Services Inc., a Calgary, Alberta, Canada-based global oilfield services company, which provides drilling and related oilfield services to its customers. Ms. Davies has been with Ensign for nearly 14 years (since early 2007) and was its first in-house attorney at that time. Ms. Davies graduated from the Faculty of Law at McGill University in Montreal, Quebec in 2001 with a joint LL.B / B.C.L degree (with Distinction). Prior to that, Ms. Davies' completed an undergraduate degree in Kinesiology (minor in French) from the University of Calgary in 1996. Ms. Davies completed her articles (a requirement for Canadian provincial bars) at the Canadian national law firm of Borden Ladner Gervais LLP, and remained at that firm as an associate until early 2007 when she joined Ensign. Ensign has a large operational presence in various areas of the United States, in particular in Texas, Colorado and California. Ms. Davies and Ms. Mata began working together in early 2010 as Ensign was establishing its presence in Texas, and have continued their successful and productive client/partner relationship consistently over those years, through industry upswings and downturns and most recently through COVID-19 business challenges.
