

Carolyn Glenn
Senior Counsel, Kaiser Foundation Health Plan

Carolyn went to Seattle University for her J.D. and later attended the London School of Economics LL.M program on a full Rotary International Scholarship/stipend. She worked as an employment law associate at Davis Wright Tremaine in Seattle before going in-house at Group Health Cooperative, the largest consumer-governed HMO in the country. Kaiser Permanente acquired GHC in 2017 and Carolyn has been Senior Counsel on the KP Litigation Team since that time managing employment lawsuits in four KP regions: Southern California, Northern California, Oregon, and Washington. In her spare time, Carolyn likes to travel, write, garden, hike, bike, kayak, and camp with her husband in their 1991 Vanagon.
